

When to call 9-1-1?

Call 9-1-1 for:

- Fight or Assault in Progress
- Fires
- Car Crashes
- Robbery
- Choking
- Person Passing Out or Collapsing
- Heart Attack
- Domestic Violence in Progress
- Poisoning
- Drowning
- Unconsciousness
- Shooting
- Sexual Assault
- Hazardous Chemical Spill
- Smoke in a building
- Drunk or Impaired Driver
- Gas Leak
- Kidnapping
- Arson
- Prowler
- Drug Overdose
- Stroke
- Uncontrollable Bleeding
- Severe Allergic Reaction
- Suicide
- Carbon Monoxide Alarm
- Seizures
- Smell of Smoke
- Severe ATV Crash

Do not call 9-1-1 for this:

- Power outages
- Graffiti
- Minor Illness
- Stolen Bicycle
- Missing Pet
- Questions
- Weather Reports
- Directions
- Missing Keys
- Animal Control Information
- Crime with No Suspect
- Noisy Party
- Telephone Problems
- Roadside Assistance
- Abandoned Vehicles
- Citation payment
- Ambulance Requests for non-emergency events
- Barking dogs
- Minor Injuries
- Police Report Information
- Vandalism that has already occurred
- Road Conditions
- Theft or Burglary that has already occurred
- Civil Disputes
- Dead Animal Reports